

Become the Mark Zuckerberg of the Green Movement

Mark Zuckerberg, CEO of Facebook, is worth Billions because he has access to over 500,000,000 people. If you had access to over 500,000,000 people, what would you be worth?

You may have access to that many people through texting. Look at what can happen by just texting 50 people with a simple message, who each text 50 and so forth, in the example below.

50 text = 5 to 8 sign ups

This totals almost 2 ½ million people and it doesn't have to stop here. Can you imagine the possibilities if just 10% of these people buy just one product this month and you get the commission?
